News Release

Hunton & Williams Noted as a Top Law Firm for Diversity By MultiCultural Law Magazine

Hunton & Williams is pleased to announce the firm has been named one of the 2008 Top 100 Law Firms for Diversity by MultiCultural Law magazine. The firm also was listed among the Top 50 Law Firms for Partners, the Top 100 Law Firms for Women, and the Top 25 Law Firms for both Hispanics and African Americans. In addition, the firm's Diversity Committee Co-chairs, Amy McDaniel Williams, Todd Brown and Mike Martinez, were profiled as "Diversity Advocates."

First published by the magazine three years ago, the Top 100 list is based on the results of a survey sent annually to more than 250 U.S. law firms. Criteria for a firm's selection include percentage of minority attorneys, strength of leadership commitment, and number and quality of internal and external diversity programs and initiatives.

"Our diversity is one of our greatest assets," stated Walfrido J. Martinez, the firm's managing partner. "That's why we maintain a vigorous diversity program to make sure Hunton & Williams continues to be an attractive place to work for the very best diverse talent."

MultiCultural Law, a publication of L.P. Green & Partners, Inc., addresses diversity in the legal profession and is distributed to more than 40,000 legal professionals and law students each year.
